Operational Updates

Deputy Chief Weber noted that we continue to have large volumes of 9-1-1 calls. ECC received 21,000 calls in total in January, with 4,700 calls being for 9-1-1 Emergency Service.

The what3words app has been a great success and was used twice in January and early February to help locate citizens during Calls for Service. Of note was a Call for Service for stranded snowmobilers north of Capreol. The app has also helped the Fire Department to locate lost people more quickly.

Deputy Chief Weber also noted the Service’s ongoing focus on road safety with #AnytimeAnywhere RIDE campaign.

There have been multiple high-risk arrests and vehicle takedowns. This included a joint effort with the Espanola OPP. GSPS was able to locate a vehicle fleeing a shooting in Espanola. This resulted in the arrest of three (3) suspects and recovery of a loaded gun.

Also of note was the joint investigation with Toronto Police Service that led to the arrest of two suspects and recovery of $56,700 worth of drugs and $500 in cash.

The Service continues to engage with public on social media with several successful public awareness campaigns.
